

Alateen groups are encouraged to attend the West Texas Alateen Conference (WTAC)

What: WTAC is a chance for Alateens to share their experience, strength and hope with teens from all across Texas!

When: WTAC begins Friday April 11 and ends Sunday April 13.

Where: WTAC is held at a camp on beautiful Lake Brownwood in Brownwood, Texas. 9030 Retreat Rd, Brownwood, Texas 76801

Why: WTAC is a lifechanging experience for Alateens and Alateen Sponsors. Meals are served in the cafeteria and bunkrooms are comfortable, so there is plenty of time for meetings and free time to get to know people well and make friends for life.

April 11 – 13, 2025

Logistics: Due to the drive time, most teens take off from school early on Friday and groups try to arrive by 6 pm. Dress is casual. Many of the activities and meetings are held outdoors. Bring bedding and towels. Look out for the registration package for groups and teens. The price of $120 per attendee includes housing and four meals. Many groups raise funds to partially cover travel and registration costs.

If you are interested or want more information, contact the WTAC chair Barry Dorociak at dorociak@verizon.net or 214-543-8213.

DON'T MISS OUT!!! WE WANT YOU THERE!
